DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on April 29, 2005 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. No support is seen in the specification for the word "controlling" in the recitation "A method for controlling a bacterial infectious respiratory disease" and applicant has not pointed out where support may be found.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1614

Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Goumas et al. Goumas discloses (summary, translation, page 4, fourth paragraph) a method of using carbocysteine and sobrerol to prevent bronchial infection. Applicant argues that the reference teaches only the use of the combination and that there is no suggestion in the reference that either compound could or should be used alone. This is not persuasive. Goumas discloses that the therapeutic effects are the sum of the characteristics possessed by each substance alone. It would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art that a patient not able to take sobrerol, e.g. because of allergic reaction or intolerable side effects, would still receive benefit from taking carbocysteine alone.
